will be seen that Mr Narasimha Iyengar requested in 1910 that the Widows' Home might be converted into a Govt institution & turned into a branch of the Maharani's College. But Mr Weir, the then Dept of Edn suggested that the Home might remain an aided institution under the management of the Committee at any rate for some time - Govt accordingly sanctioned a grant to the Home

Two or three months ago the D of Edn had sent up (seem officially) a memo about ~~a hostel to be~~ the Widows' Home being developed into a hostel for the Maharani's college, & he was told (also seem-officially) that Govt would agree with the main lines of his proposals & to that he might send up the scheme officially. Please put up this D.O correspondence & note if any official reference has since been made by the D of E.

My esteemed Friend

I resisted the temptation to write to disturb you sufficiently long I must now indulge in the pleasure to write to you

I have no other thought but that of seeing the Mysore widows Home placed on a permanent footing I heard you had paid a visit to the Madras Govt. Brahmin Widows Hostel which has been started following our example and influence

There was an incident in my life a week ago I had two days of Continuous fever, rising to 104 degrees and remained unconscious I could not express my wish for my tongue could not work

My only regret was that I had not the happiness to see the widows Home permanently established
- I shall not write more : but invoke Gods choicest blessings on you for this great & holy work of Charity and progress Commend
With best regards
Yours very Sincerely
A Narasimulu Iyengar
